15 Awesome DIY Projects Using PVC Pipe

If you’re the kind of person who likes to get crafty and construct your own items for around the house, then you’ll love these DIY projects you can make using PVC pipe. It might not seem like the kind of material that would lend itself well to making a range of useful and decorative items, but its actually extremely versatile. Take a look at these 15 items and comment to let us know if there are any that you’re going to attempt to make yourself!

This cute, functional laptop holder is simple to make.

There are hours of summer fun to be had with this “kid wash”.

This PVC pipe frame looks ridiculously stylish.

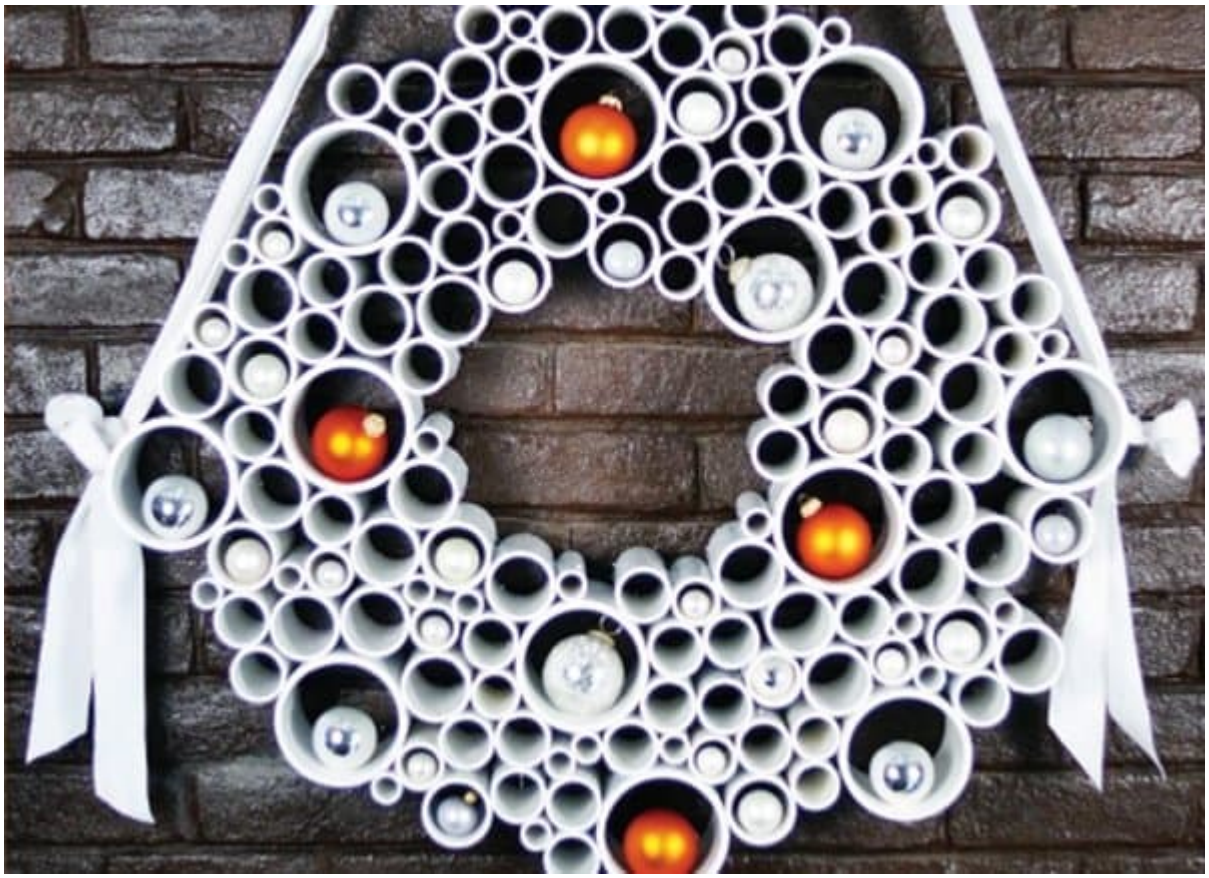
PVC pipe fort frame. All you need are some blankets and you’re away.

It's Great to Be Home
DIY PVC
Pipe Fort

This blow dryer holder is straightforward, but very functional.

This bath toy is beyond amazing.

This gorgeous wreath is perfect for the festive season.



Check out this awesome wine rack!

This PVC pipe vase is a perfect centerpiece.

Turn PVC pipes into individual toothbrush holders.

Stuck inside a cupboard door, these pipes can help organize tools or other small electricals.

PVC pipes make ideal frames for a target or anything else you want to hang.

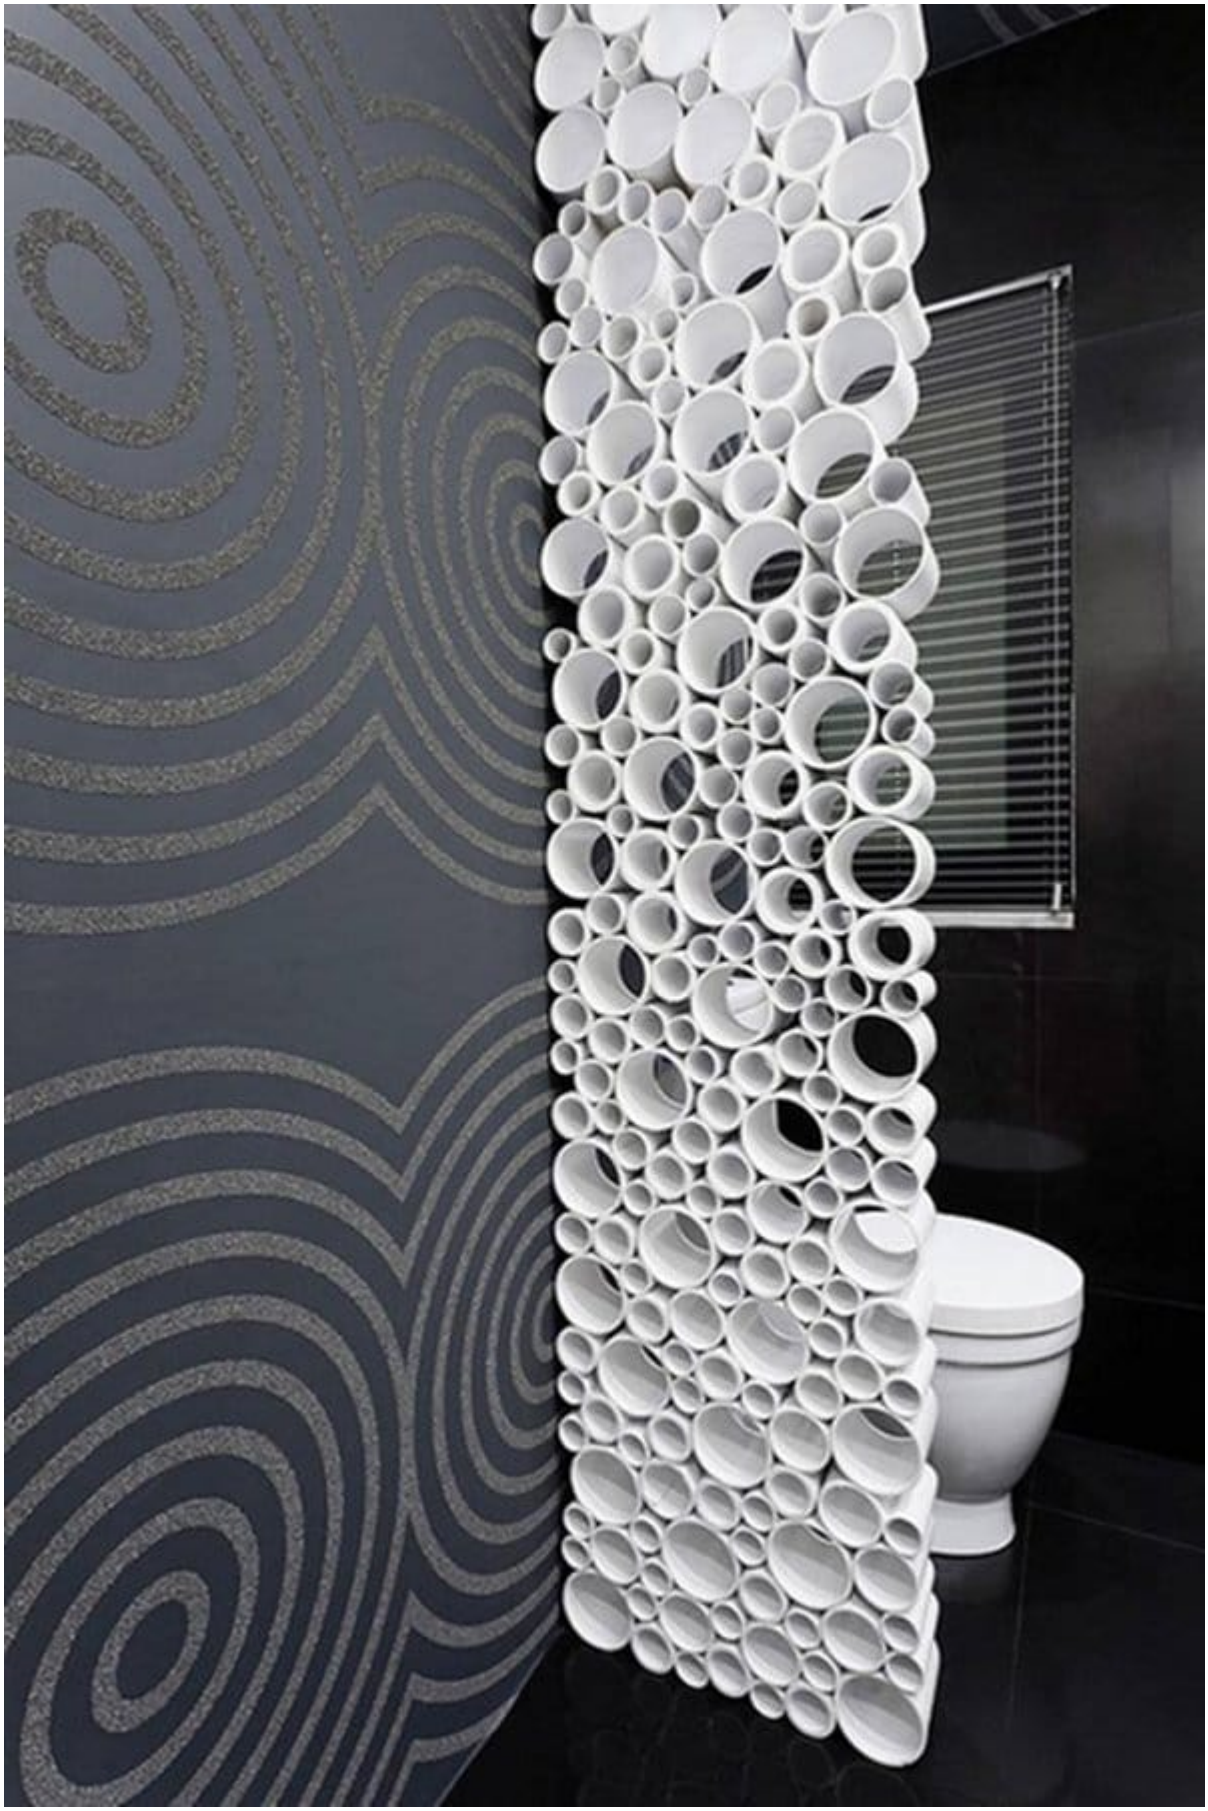
You can also make them into a nifty soccer goal.

It’s easy to turn them into planters.

This PVC pipe partition looks super cool!



Sursa: www.architecturendesign.net